14 You shall contribute to the cost of treatment in an amount if any to be determined time
15 to time by the probation officer.
- 16 3. You shall submit to periodic polygraph testing as approved by the probation officer
17 as a means to determine compliance with the requirements of your therapeutic
18 program. No violation proceedings will arise solely on the results of a polygraph
19 examination or a valid Fifth Amendment refusal to answer a polygraph question.
- 20 4. You shall reside in a residence approved, in advance, by the probation officer. Any 21 changes in the residence must be pre-approved by the probation officer.
- 22 5. You shall not possess, view, or otherwise use material depicting sexually explicit 23 conduct as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256. You shall not possess, view, or otherwise use 24 any other material that is sexually stimulating or sexually oriented deemed to be 25 inappropriate by the probation officer. You will submit any records requested by the 26 probation officer to verify your compliance with this condition. You shall not enter
27 any location where the primary function is to provide these prohibited materials.
28

- 1 6. You shall register with all state and tribal sex offender agencies in any state where 2 you reside, are employed, carry on a vocation, or are a student, as directed by the 3 probation officer.
- 4 7. You shall submit your person, property (including but not limited to computer,
5 electronic devices, and storage media), residence, office, or vehicle to a search
6 conducted by a probation officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.
- 7 8. You shall not be in the company of or have contact with children under the age of 18
8 years, to include your own children, without prior approval of the probation officer.
9 Contact includes, but is not limited to, letters, communication devices, audio or visual
10 devices, visits, or communication through a third party. You shall immediately report 11 any contact of that nature to the probation officer.
- 12 9. You shall not directly or indirectly contact the victim or the victim's family without 13 prior approval of the probation officer. Indirect contact includes, but is not limited
14 to, letters, communication devices, audio or visual devices, or communication through 15 a third party. You shall immediately report any contact to the probation officer.
- 16 10. You are restricted from engaging in any occupation, business, or profession where 17 you have access to children under the age of 18 years, without prior approval of the 18 probation officer. Acceptable employment shall include a stable, verifiable work 19 location and the probation officer must be granted access to your work site.
- 20 11. You shall reside and participate in a residential re-entry center for up to 270 days, 21 unless discharged earlier by the assigned probation officer.
- 22 12. You shall abstain from all use of alcohol or alcoholic beverages.
